Let us pray.

Holy One, we thank you for the gift of this day and for the new life we experience this Easter season. We thank you for your grace which covers this entire world. We offer you the broken shards of our lives, trusting that you will reassemble them into a beautiful mosaic. We long to see you face to face even as we catch only glimpses of your goodness. As we worship this day, help us to offer ourselves fully to you. Transform our fear into hope. Break down the walls of our hearts so that your light shines not only into our lives, but through our every thought, word and action. We pray these things in the name of your Risen One, Jesus the Christ. Amen.
