CALL TO WORSHIP

Liturgist, Johnna Dunten

Leader: We are here not because we have found God but because God our Creator has called us here.

People: Challenging us to accept the cost and joy of discipleship, and to be servants in the service of the whole human family.

Leader: But the call is also God's promise:

People: A promise of forgiveness of sins and fullness of grace,
Courage in the struggle for justice and peace,
and eternal life in that realm which has no end.

All: Blessing and honor and glory and power be unto God!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- It is exciting to have Pastor Daryl with us. We look forward to a blessed time together as the Body of Christ.
- Reminder we are working to revise our in-person worship protocols — but for now all our safety precautions remain – please wear a mask and be aware of physical distancing. We still can't have group singing, but feel free to hum along.
- There is a Celebration of Life Service honoring Marvin Wolfe here today immediately following this service.
- Emily Nelson wants to let everyone know the “Shawlers” will begin gathering again on Thursday, July 15th at 3:00 p.m. right here in this room. All knitters/crocheters are welcome.
- We won't be passing collection plates today, but you may drop your offerings in a drop box located near your exit door when you leave. You may also give by mail or online by clicking on donate on our website Whitney UMC dot org. (whitneyumc.org)
- As you may know, the parsonage requires extensive renovation before it can be occupied. If you are able, please consider making a second mile offering to help with this effort. The cost of this project far exceeds anything we have in our planned budget.
