*Call to Worship

Kaylyn Fournier, liturgist

One: Today we gather in the presence of God, who calls each of us by name.

Many: We come to hear His voice and respond to His call.

One: Jesus said, "Talitha cumi," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!"

Many: Just as He called the little girl to rise, He calls us to new life today.

One: In our moments of doubt and fear, Jesus speaks words of hope and healing.

Many: He lifts us from the depths and fills us with His light.

One: Let us come before Him with hearts open to His transforming power.

Many: We come ready to rise, to live, and to worship our Lord.

One: Arise, O people of God, and let us worship together in joy and thanksgiving.

All: Amen.

Anthem

“Come as You Are”

Six Ways to Sunday

Opening Prayer (unison)

Gracious and loving God, we come before You today with hearts full of gratitude and awe. You are the God who calls us from darkness into light, from despair into hope, and from death into life. Just as Jesus spoke to calm the raging sea, you spoke to heal the sick and even raised the dead, we ask You to speak to us today to bring to life and calmness into our lives.

Lord, awaken our spirits and revive our hearts. Help us to rise above our doubts and fears, and to trust in Your unfailing love and power. As we gather in Your name, fill this place with Your presence and guide us into a deeper understanding of Your will.

May Your words of life and healing resonate within us, transforming us and empowering us to live out Your calling. Grant us the courage to respond to Your voice, to step into the new life You offer, and to share Your love with those around us.

Bless this time of worship, and may everything we do bring glory to Your holy name. We pray this in the name of Jesus, who calls us to rise and follow Him. Amen.
